

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW

RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES 2019

The CCLFR Intellectual Property and Information Law Seminar Series brings together experts to present their latest research in relation to intellectual property, internet law, and data protection.

It seeks to stimulate an informed discourse on the constantly evolving landscape of intellectual property and information law.

Attendance is free. To register email Professor Stavroula Karapapa at s.karapapa@reading.ac.uk

Professor Maurizio Borghi
Bournemouth University

Streaming piracy and the rights of TV broadcasters

Wednesday 23 January | 2-3pm | Palmer 102

Dr Enrico Bonadio
City, University of London

Restricting the Use of Brands to Protect Health: The Latest Developments

Wednesday 30 January | 2-3pm | Palmer 102

Dr Eleonora Rosati
University of Southampton

Copyright and the Court of Justice of the European Union: Role, Action, Legacy

Wednesday 27 February | 3-4pm | Palmer 102

Dr Matt Fisher
University College London

Doctrine of Equivalents

Tuesday 20 March | 2-3 pm | Palmer 103

 <http://www.reading.ac.uk/cclfr>
 commerciallms@reading.ac.uk
 @UniRdg_CCLFR