

Japanese through novels, manga and anime

A short language course from the Institution-Wide Language Programme (IWLP)

What and how will I learn?

Intended for IWLP level 1 (or equivalent) Japanese learners, this module will allow students to explore the Japanese language through the medium of printed and audio visual media, such as novels, manga (comic books), anime, films, dramas and songs.

You will have an opportunity to apply your knowledge of beginners' Japanese to real-life situations and to enhance your ability to understand simple and basic expressions as used in selected authentic and adapted media, increasing your confidence and your enjoyment of learning Japanese.
